ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography of multiethnic curriculum materials is distributed by the Title IV Equal Educational Opportunity Project and funded under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. All materials listed are available from the Nebraska Title IV Equal Educational Opportunity Project. Each entry includes the title, author, editor or compiler, copyright date, publisher, reference number, description, and level of use. Articles (adult reading level) abstracted from magazines and journals are also available at request. Also included is a microfiche listing which emphasized multicultural education. These can be viewed in the Nebraska Department of Education or checked out for a three-week period. At the end of the bibliography, a list of publishing company addresses is given. (Author/JM)

All materials listed are available from the Nebraska Title IV Equal Educational Opportunity Project.

Each entry includes the title, author, editor or compliler, copyright date, publisher, reference number, description and level of use. Articles (adult reading level) abstracted from magazines and journals are also available at request.

Also included is a microfiche listing which emphasizes multi-cultural education. These can be viewed in the Nebraska Department of Education or checked out for a three-week period. At the end of the bibliography, a list of publishing company addresses is given.

All requests for use of materials should be directed to the address given below. Please indicate first and second choices and dates of use and list the title and reference number of the material. There is a three week limit on books, kits and pamphlets and a three-day limit on films and filmstrips. This limitation allows for greater use of materials in the school districts of Nebraska. There is no cost for the materials except for return postage.

The Title IV unit would appreciate learning of any multi-ethnic materials which should be included in this bibliography. The materials listed are not entities in themselves but rather should be viewed as material which can enhance an existing multi-ethnic curriculum.

Please feel free to duplicate this bibliography so that it can be useful to many educators. It will be up-dated quarterly.

Please send your requests for materials to:

The Story of the Mexican Americans: The Men and the Land

1969, American Book Company

The purpose is to portray Mexican Americans realistically as participants in American history, narrating their roles in the past and amplifying their responsibility to the present and future of the United States. Moreover, this book attempts to erase the stereotype that many persons have that Mexican Americans are foreigners who have contributed little to the history of the U. S. Teachers Guide included.
